Basic Information

Name of Lead Agency:
Jackson County Family Wellness Court

Location:
Scottsboro, Alabama

Jurisdiction Served:
Jackson County, Alabama

Start Date of Program:
November 2016

Program Capacity:
105

---

Target Population

Pregnant women and mothers, with children aged 0-3, with a substance use disorder.

Target numbers to be served annually, and over the duration of the QIC Program:
- Year One:
  - 30 adults, families, children
- Year Two:
  - 35 adults, families, children
- Year Three:
  - 40 adults, families, children
- Total Project:
  - 105 adults, families, children

---

Program and Services

- Assessment, treatment planning, and recovery support
- Individual and/or family counseling
- Individualized parenting coach
- Safety planning
- Anger Management and Domestic Violence classes
- In-home counseling and case management services
- Evidence-Based Practice, Strengthening Families

---

Goals for QIC-CCCT

- Increase the number of participants in target population by 50%.
- Engage community in a collaborative effort to better serve the target population.
- Reduce the number of days children, aged 0-3, spend in out-of-home care due to parental substance use.
- Improve access to treatment for pregnant women who are abusing substances.

---

Key Partners

Child Welfare:
- Jackson County Department of Human Resources

Addiction Recovery:
- Family Life Center
- Health Connect America

Mental Health:
- Health Connect America
- Mountain Lakes Behavioral Healthcare

Healthcare:
- Best Start
- Highlands Medical Center
- Kids First Pediatrics
- Scottsboro OB/GYN

---

Graph/image title

Helping Families, Helping Kids, Helping Each Other

---

Contact Information

Erica Kirkland-Weeks
Program Coordinator
Jackson County Family Wellness Court
256-574-9365
ekirklandweeks@gmail.com